It's time to invest in Berkeley's streets

Berkeley's infrastructure is crumbling. Measure FF will provide over $100 million to fix Berkeley's streets and sidewalks, while making them safer and more welcoming for everyone.

Over 14 years, the measure is anticipated to provide:

$80 million for street paving

$55 million for bike and pedestrian safety improvements

$27 million for sidewalk and pedestrian path repairs

$18 million for environmental enhancements and overhead

City staff estimate measure FF will raise over $15 million/year. The tax rate in the measure is 17 cents per square foot for residential properties and 25 cents per square foot for non-residential properties.

“Measure FF is a vital investment in our community’s safety and well-being.”

- Amory Langmo, President,
Berkeley Firefighters Association Local 1227
